The design of this work is to place before the pubhe faithful sketches of the persons and costumes o the principal Chiefs of our North-Western Tribe of Indians. The author was employed by the Indian Department at Washington to attend the different Indian Councils during a period of nearly filten years for the purpose of taking the portraitof the most distinguished Chiefs; and has therefore enjoyed the most ample facilities for executing hi task. The work will be comprised in six numbers quarto size, handsomely printed, each of which will contain six splendid colored plates, with his torical and biographical notes, and will be delivered to subscribers at $1 a number. The first number contains the portraits of 'Foremost in Battle,' Chief of the Sioux tribe; 'Tshu-cue-ga,' a half-blood of the Winnebago Tribe; 'Benr's Oil,' a Menomon Chief; 'Big Buck,' a Chippewa; 'Black Hawk; and 'Berry-Picker,' a famous Chippewa.
